POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a terse and spicy manner.

Only 100 business failures were reported in the United States for the last week.
Jim Barker was hanged at Lebanon, Tenn., for killing an old woman, Mrs. Lane.
John O'Brien killed Asa R. Parks, another convict, in the J. J. Hill, Ill., penitentiary.
The Providence base ball club will disband on account of bad support from the public.
William Emmett, a well known Chicago theatrical manager, died in the Cook county hospital.
George I. Seney, the broken Brooklyn millionaire, has repaired his fortune and again appeared in Wall street.
The Spanish vessels seized at Key West, Fla., for alleged violation of the custom law have been ordered released.
The jury was out all last night in the Maxwell-Freder murder case. It is surmised that there will be a disagreement.
The blind race horse called Dynamite ran into the fence at Latonia and was instantly killed.
The jockey was slightly hurt.
Two colored men, named Honesty and Banks, were hanged at Winchester, Va., for murdering a young named Joseph McPaul.
President Cleveland's honeymoon trip will probably be completed within a week. He enjoyed a quiet day at Deer Park yesterday.
At the meeting of the National Storekeepers' association, at Cleveland, the prices of stores were advanced ten and one-half per cent.

Secretary of the Treasury Manning tendered his resignation, but at the suggestion of the president, accepted a leave of absence until October and goes to Hot Springs, Ark.
Locomotive engineers of the Queen & Crescent route at St. Louis in connection with officials of the road with the view of a better adjustment of wages throughout the line.

The trial of the famous McArthur will case will occur in Cincinnati instead of Columbus, as at first arranged. It will be called on June 10. Judge Jackson will occupy the bench with Judge Sigsbee.

The attorneys in the Pan-Electric case have decided to ask Judge Jackson to hear their case this term, and sent for Joseph E. McDonald and other counsel. The court will insist on the case coming up in the regular order.

Anty Burt McKay celebrated her hundredth anniversary at Taylorville, Ky. She drove a horse thirty years old to the banquet given in her honor. Near New Holland, O., lives Mrs. Margaret Arnold, who will be 100 years old next month. She has two sisters in Iowa, one 112, and the other 106 years of age.

At Deer Park a colored man eluded the guards and, stealing up near the house, looked into the parlor occupied by the president and his bride. Just then the guards pounced on him, handcuffed him and dragged him away. He said he merely came to see the president and was subsequently released.

Plymouth church gives Mr. Beecher leave of absence for all time he was for a trip to Europe. He says he is not going for his health, as he has more health than he knows what to do with. As the trip will cost considerable money and he hasn't any laid up in bank, he will lecture in order to pay expenses. His wife, who has never been in Europe, will go with him.

An attempt made at Chicago to take out four cars loaded with rails manufactured by non-union men, was frustrated by the women and children of the strikers, who in great numbers gathered on the track and prevented the engines from moving. The police were unable to do anything with the throng. The house of a non-union man was stormed by the women and the windows broken.
